NOTICE OF ANSWER TO OPPOSITION

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of an answer to opposition, filed on the 24th day of March, 2023, by COUNTRY MEAT PRODUCTS LIMITED (The Applicant), of Box 574 Emerald Road, Spanish Lookout, Cayo, to the Opposition by TIGER RUN FARM LTD. (The Opponent) of Mile 65 George Price Highway, Cayo District, Belize, filed on the 21st day of November, 2024, against trade mark application No. 19316.24 file on the 25th day of March, 2024, for the registration of the following trade mark, as proprietors thereof:

A. Grounds

The Applicant hereby gives notice that the following are the grounds on which it relies as supporting the above trade mark:

1. The mark which appears above, and which is the subject of the Application (“the Mark”), is primarily used for labelling CMPL’s products.
2. Tiger Run Farm Limited (“the Opponent”) alleges at paragraph 7 of the Notice of Opposition dated the 6th of December 2024 (“the Notice of Opposition”) that the registration of the mark appearing above and as contained in CMPL’s Application (“the Mark”) would contravene sections 37(1), 37(2), and 37(3) of the Trade Marks Act.
3. CMPL strenuously denies these allegations, as will be discussed in more detail herein.
4. The registration of the Mark would not and cannot contravene section 37(1) of the Trade Marks Act. Section 37(1) of the Trade Marks Act provides:

37.-(1) A trade mark, shall not be registered if it is identical with an earlier trade mark and the goods or services for which the trade mark is applied for are identical with the goods or services for which the earlier trade mark is protected.

5. The Mark is certainly not identical to the Opponent’s registered marks. This ground for opposition is therefore not sustainable.
6. CMPL contends that the registration of the Mark would not and cannot contravene section 37(3) of the Trade Marks Act either, as section 37(3) is not applicable. Section 37(3) of the Trade Marks Act provides:

(3) A trade mark which,

(a) is identical with or similar to an earlier trade mark; and

(b) is to be registered for goods or services which are not similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected, [emphasis added]

shall not be registered if, or to the extent that, the earlier trade mark has a reputation in Belize and the use of the later mark without due cause would take unfair advantage of or be detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of the earlier trade mark.

7. CMPL seeks registration of the Mark in respect of the following international classes, which are similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected:

Class 29:

Meat and meat products.

Class 35:

Wholesale services in relation to meats; retail services in relation to meats.

8. The Opponent's marks are registered under international Class 29 for "processed meats". Therefore, the registration is being sought in respect of goods which are similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected.
9. The Applicant consequently avers that the only matter for determination by the Belize Intellectual Property Office is whether the registration of the Mark would contravene section 37(2) of the Trade Marks Act. The Applicant says it would not.

10. Section 37(2) of the Trade Marks Act provides:

(2) A trade mark, shall not be registered if because,

(a) it is identical with an earlier trade mark and is to be registered for goods or services similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected; or

(b) it is similar to an earlier trade mark and is to be registered for goods or services identical with or similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected,

there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public, which includes the likelihood of association with the earlier trade mark.

11. The Applicant avers that the Mark is neither identical nor similar to the Opponent's registered marks which appear in paragraph 4 of the Notice of Opposition.
12. It is denied that there is any likelihood of confusion or association with the Opponent's registered trade marks arising from CMPL's use of the mark on its goods, whether as alleged in the Notice of Opposition or at all.
13. The average consumer for the goods or services in question can without difficulty distinguish the goods or services of the Defendant from those of the Claimant because:
- a. The Opponent's mark is in the shape of an oval, while the Mark is in the shape of the shin of a cow.
14. The stark difference between the Mark and the Opponent's registered marks refutes any contention that there would be a likelihood of confusion among customers.
15. Without prejudice to the Applicant's requirement for the Opponent to prove that it has obtained a distinctive character or reputation, the Applicant denies that the use of the Mark would take unfair advantage of, or be detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of the earlier trade mark.
16. The Application does not contravene section 35(6) of the Trade Marks Act, since the Application is not being made in bad faith.
17. In light of the above, the Applicant requests that the opposition be rejected and the Applicant's application to register the Mark be granted as there is no risk of confusion or association with the Opponent's registered marks on the part of the Belizean public since the Applicant's trademark is unique.

18. The Applicant also intends to rely on the Affidavit of Rudy Plett sworn to on the 24th of March 2025 in answer to the Notice of Opposition.

B. Admissions

1. No admissions are made as to the grounds relied on by the Opponent, and the Opponent is put to strict proof of the facts it relies upon.

22. The Mark is certainly not identical to the Opponent’s registered marks. This ground for opposition is therefore not sustainable.

23. CMPL contends that the registration of the Mark would not and cannot contravene section 37(3) of the Trade Marks Act either, as section 37(3) is not applicable. Section 37(3) of the Trade Marks Act provides:

(4) A trade mark which,

(a) is identical with or similar to an earlier trade mark; and

26. The Applicant consequently avers that the only matter for determination by the Belize Intellectual Property Office is whether the registration of the Mark would contravene section 37(2) of the Trade Marks Act. The Applicant says it would not.

27. Section 37(2) of the Trade Marks Act provides:

(2) A trade mark, shall not be registered if because,

(c) it is identical with an earlier trade mark and is to be registered for goods or services similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected; or

(d) it is similar to an earlier trade mark and is to be registered for goods or services identical with or similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected,

there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public, which includes the likelihood of association with the earlier trade mark.

28. The Applicant avers that the Mark is neither identical nor similar to the Opponent's registered marks which appear in paragraph 4 of the Notice of Opposition.

29. It is denied that there is any likelihood of confusion or association with the Opponent's registered trade marks arising from CMPL's use of the mark on its goods, whether as alleged in the Notice of Opposition or at all.

30. The average consumer for the goods or services in question can without difficulty distinguish the goods or services of the Defendant from those of the Claimant because:

- a. The Applicant's mark contains a depiction of a cow and a pig, with the words "Country Meat" below those images.
- b. The Opponent's registered marks contain no depictions of animals.
- c. The fonts used in the Applicant's mark and the Opponent's registered marks are also different.
- d. The colors used on the respective marks are also different.

31. The stark difference between the Mark and the Opponent's registered marks refutes any contention that there would be a likelihood of confusion among customers.

32. Without prejudice to the Applicant's requirement for the Opponent to prove that it has obtained a distinctive character or reputation, the Applicant denies that the use of the Mark would take unfair advantage of, or be detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of the earlier trade mark.

33. The Application does not contravene section 35(6) of the Trade Marks Act, since the Application is not being made in bad faith.
34. In light of the above, the Applicant requests that the opposition be rejected and the Applicant's application to register the Mark be granted as there is no risk of confusion or association with the Opponent's registered marks on the part of the Belizean public since the Applicant's trademark is unique.
