NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of a notice of opposition filed on the 2nd day of April 2025, by THE SCOTCH WHISKY ASSOCIATION (The Opponent), of 1st Floor Quartermile Two, 2 Lister Square, Edinburgh, Scotland, EH3 9GL, against trademark Application No.1774639, filed on the 28th day of March, 2024, by JOINT STOCK COMPANY BRAND BUILDING GROUP (The Applicant), of per. Bolshoj Savvinskij, d. 11, pom. 1/3/4, vn.ter.g.municipalnyjokrug Xamovniki, RU-119435 Moscow (Russian Federation), for the registration of the following trademark, as proprietor thereof:

EDINBURGH CRUISER

The grounds of opposition are as follows:

1. The Opponent is the trade association of the Scotch Whisky industry. It currently has over 90 members including the leading distillers, blenders and exporters of Scotch Whisky. Its members are responsible for the production of around 95% of all Scotch Whisky and sell their Scotch Whisky brands around the world, including in Belize.
2. Scotch Whisky is whisky that has been wholly produced in Scotland in accordance with UK legislation, in particular, The Scotch Whisky Regulations 2009 and the Product Specification for Scotch Whisky. Scotch Whisky is recognised in the United Kingdom (“UK”) as a Geographical Indication (“GI”) and has been specifically registered as a GI in the name of the Opponent in numerous countries around the world.
3. In the UK, His Majesty's Revenue and Customs (“HMRC”) is the government body responsible for the verification of Scotch Whisky as a GI under the UK’s “Spirit Drinks Verification Scheme”. All Scotch Whisky brands must be verified by HMRC before being marketed for retail sale (irrespective of whether the brand is sold in the UK or abroad). This scheme protects the integrity and reputation of the Scotch Whisky GI globally by ensuring that Scotch Whisky products are made in accordance with the Product Specification and allowing consumers in the UK and abroad to identify genuine Scotch Whiskies.
4. All bulk importers of Scotch Whisky and all facilities (in and outside of the UK) involved in any Scotch Whisky production process (this includes bottling and labelling Scotch Whisky bought in bulk) must be verified by HMRC. The majority of Scotch Whisky produced in Scotland is exported to countries around the world. With the exception of Single Malt Scotch Whisky which must be bottled and labelled in Scotland before it is exported, other types of Scotch Whisky can be exported in bulk for blending and bottling outside of the UK.
5. The SWA’s primary objective is to protect and promote the interests of the Scotch Whisky trade generally both at home and abroad. The SWA has the express power to prosecute, defend and enter into legal proceedings in any territory of the world in defence of the interests of the Scotch whisky trade.
6. As part of the SWA’s work to protect the Scotch Whisky industry, the SWA monitors and opposes trade marks around the world, primarily under the Nice international class 33, that inter alia infringe the Scotch Whisky GI or other certification trade mark(s) or collective trade mark(s); or are evocative of Scotland when used on whisky and could therefore confuse consumers as to the origins of the product on which the mark is used.
7. The SWA has also initiated legal proceedings (including administrative, civil and criminal proceedings) around the world to prevent inter alia the sale of products from passing off as Scotch Whisky, counterfeits or products which are deceptive in other ways and could harm the Scotch Whisky industry.

8. The SWA has opposed use of the “EDINBURGH CRUISER” mark in other jurisdictions on the basis that ‘Edinburgh’ is highly evocative of Scotland and could mislead consumers as to the origins of the products bearing the mark, particularly if it is used on whisky.
9. Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland and is a renowned destination for international tourists. Scotland has a strong reputation for producing Scotch Whisky. Edinburgh itself is associated with Scotch Whisky with distilleries and Scotch Whisky tourist attractions located in around the city.
10. The Applicant has applied for the mark, “EDINBURGH CRUISER” and its application covers a broad specification of alcoholic beverages, including whisky. “EDINBURGH CRUISER” has not been verified by HMRC in the UK as a brand of Scotch Whisky. If the Applicant uses the mark EDINBURGH CRUISER on whisky, consumers are likely to believe that the whisky is Scotch Whisky even when it is not. If the whisky has been produced elsewhere (e.g. in Russia where the Applicant is based), then consumers will have been deceived.
11. The mark contained in the Applicant’s said Application No. 1774639 contravenes section 35(3)(b) of the Trade Marks Act and should not be registered by virtue of the fact that the Applicant’s application for registration of the said mark is of such a nature as to deceive the public (for instance as to the nature, quality or geographical origin of the goods or service).
12. The mark contained in the Applicant’s said Application No. 1774639 contravenes section 35(6) of the Trade Marks Act and should not be registered by virtue of the fact that the Applicant’s application for registration of the said mark is made in bad faith.
13. The Opponent respectfully requests that the subject application for the Applicant’s trade mark be refused registration.

The Applicant is required to submit a response to this notice, to the Registrar, no later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice.
